

EUROPEAN YOUTH WEEK

European Youth Week (EYW) is an event organized by the European Commission to celebrate and promote youth engagement across Europe. It focuses on youth participation, activism, and opportunities within EU programs like Erasmus+ and the European Solidarity Corps.

CREATIVE EVENTS

Many events give you the chance to challenge yourself, whether that's trying to lead an event, give a public speech or get more involved in local volunteering.

WORKSHOPS

Events that provide new skills, knowledge and opportunities, while giving you the chance to meet and connect with your peers all over Europe

DEBATES

Debates are a big part of EYW. It's important to hear everyone's opinion, understand different points of view and discuss new ideas.

- Encourages young people to get involved in EU projects, policy-making, and social change.
- Focuses on important global topics and gives young people clear view of diff situations.
